Your Complexion tells a story to the World

HOW featlessly, how confidently, the girl with a fresh, soft, lovely skin meets the eyes of the world! Nothing to conceal! For almost always a clear, radiant complexion is an indica-tion of a buoyant, well poised nature, healthful living, and fastidious habits.

Nothing so quickly creates an impreskeeping it soft, clear, radiant-you can make it speak instantly, unmistakably, of fastidious freshness and charm, of dainty

Don't let your skir tell a story of neglect—of unlygienic or thoughtless habits. Even if through the wrong kind of treatment your complexion has lostthe smoothness and freshness it should have—if it has become pule and sallow if it is spoiled by disfiguring little blackheads - you can give it back the color and dearness that make other girls' complexions so attractive.

For your skin is constantly changingit changes every day in spin of you. Each day old skin dies and new skin takes its place. And you will find that this new akin, if given the care its particular need demands, will respond instantly and Perhaps you long for more color. Your skin has always looked so pale and sallow beside that of other girls! This condition of your skin tells clearly that it is not doing its work properly. The tiny bloodvessels have become inactive-the pores are not working feetly enough.

The new steam treatment for pale, sallow skins

Even if your skin has suffered from this condition for some time-you can correct it. By stimulating the inactive bloodvessels - thoroughly cleansing the pores -you can give the new skin as it forms, life and color.

One or two nights a week fall your washbowl full of hot water - almost beiling hot. Bend over the top of the bowl and cover your head and the bowl with a heavy bath towel, so that no steam clear but water, then with cold—the colder

Now lather a hot cloth with Woodbury's Facial Soap. With this wash already formed substitute a fiesh brush your face thoroughly, rubbing the lather for the washeloth in the treatment given outward motion. Then rinse the skin well, first with warm water, then with cold, and finish by rubbing for thirty seconds with a piece of ice.

The other nights of the week, cleanse your face thoroughly in the Woodbury way, with Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water, finishing with cold.

If you carry out this treatment with careful attention to each detail, you will be surprised, delighted at the change it will make in your appearance. Your skin will goadually take on the soft color, the freshmens it should have.

Blackheads are a confession

Perhaps you feel at a disadvantage in meeting people because your skin is constantly marred by disfiguring blackheads. Blackheads are a confession that you are using the wrong kind of cleaning for your type of skin. Oil and freeign manter have solidified in the pores - and if neglected, this condition may lead to serious irritation. The only way in which you can guard against blackheads is to keep the poeus empiritely clean and sufficiently stimulated to do their week thoroughly and carry away any wester matter before it hardens.

Every night use this treatment and see how easily you can keep your skin fine from this trouble.

Apply hor doths to the face until the skin is reddened. Then with a rough washcinth, work up a heavy lather of Woodnury's Facial Scap and rub it into the pores thoroughly - always with an opward and outward metion. Rime with can escape. Steam your face for thirty the homer. If possible, mb your face for thirty seconds with a Jump of its. Dry cerefully. To omove the blackheads handkerchief and press out the blackheads.

After using this treatment orgalarly for a few weeks, you will be surprised to see how your skin has improved -- how much clearer, more attractive it has
